

The adventures of Joe LaFlamme

Jablo/Charron

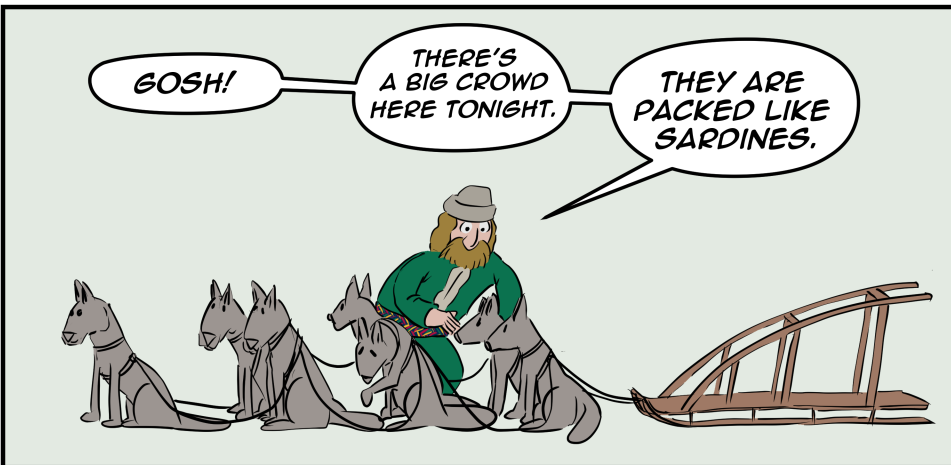

Wolf Man in New York

(January 23, 1926)

MADISON SQ. GARDEN
RANGERS HOCKEY
TONIGHT 7:30
VS
BOSTON BRUINS
NEXT MONTH
RINGLING BROS. AND
BARNUM & BAILY CIRCUS

Inspired by Joe LaFlamme's biography, entitled Wolf Man Joe LaFlamme: Tamer Untamed, written by Suzanne F. Charron and published by Latitude 46.

GOSH!

THERE'S A BIG CROWD
HERE TONIGHT.

THEY ARE PACKED LIKE SARDINES.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN,
LET'S GIVE A WARM WELCOME
TO CANADIAN MUSHER
JOE LAFLAMME AND HIS...
WOLVES.

LET'S GO!

AND COME
WHAT MAY.

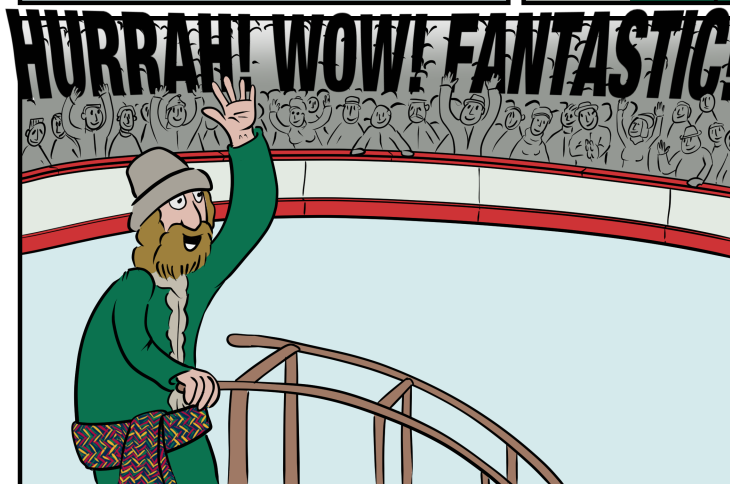

MY WOLVES ARE NERVOUS.

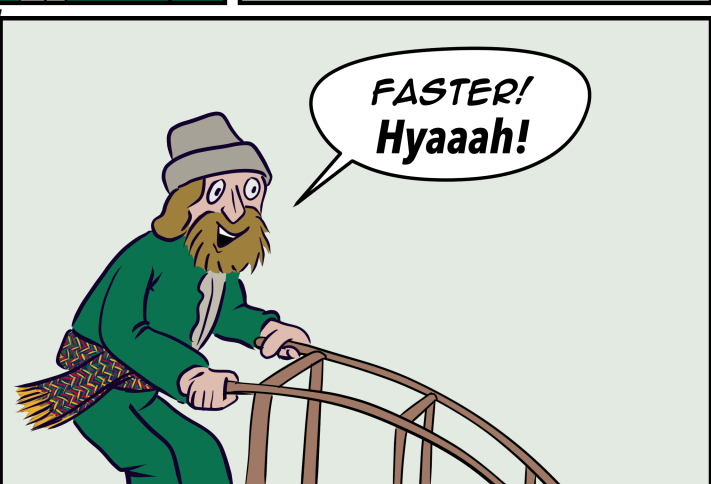

GO, MAHIGAN!
Mush!

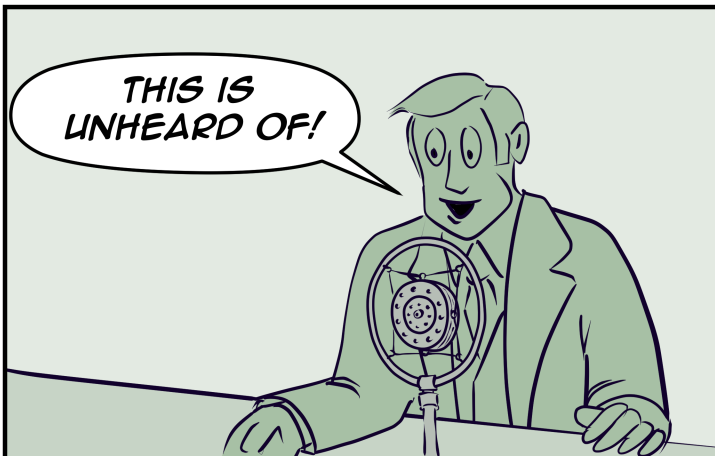

GOOD! THINGS ARE IMPROVING!

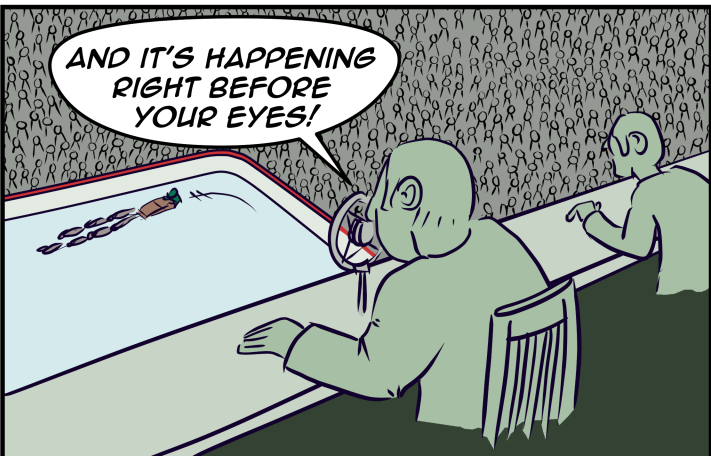

HURRAH! WOW! FANTASTIC!

FASTER!
Hyaaaah!

THIS IS UNHEARD OF!

AND IT'S HAPPENING RIGHT BEFORE YOUR EYES!

JOE LAFLAMME AND HIS WOLVES, COMING DIRECTLY FROM GOSAMA, IN THE GREAT CANADIAN NORTH!

Originally from the province of Quebec, Joe LaFlamme set roots in Northern Ontario, in 1920. Since then, his reputation as a wolf tamer continued to grow and attracted Tex Rickard's attention. Owner of the Madison Square Garden and the New York Rangers, Rickard had an eye for a good sideshow for hockey games. Hence, in January 1926, he invited LaFlamme and his wolves to New York. A new page in history...